

COOKIES POLICY

1. What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files stored on your device (e.g., a computer, mobile phone, tablet) browser when you browse websites. Other technologies, including data, which we store in your browser or a device, identifiers related to your device and other software, are used for similar purposes. Cookies are widely used to have websites operating or operating better and more effectively. All technologies mentioned in this Policy shall be called "cookies".

The Lenndy website uses cookie technology which allows collecting, storing and sharing fragments of information about every person's activities on the website. Cookies do not collect any personal information about the site visitors other than information specified below, and cookies do not download any information from the visitor's computer.

Cookies collect information such as the IP address, the type of device used, the browser used, the websites visited, and information on the website from which the user has been redirected to the website.

2. Why do you use cookies?

We use cookies because we want:

1. to ensure website operating in a way it should;
2. to ensure that you would not have to log in more than once when visiting our website several times;
3. to save your settings during a visit and between them;
4. to improve website speed/security;
5. to provide you with a possibility to share your pages in social media platforms, e.g. Facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn and Google;
6. to ensure that after login, you will be able to customize the website to meet your needs in order to find faster what you are searching for;
7. to improve the website on a permanent basis, so that it would be more appealing to you;
8. to create more effective marketing.

3. What types of cookies do you use?

We use two types of cookies:

1. session (short) cookies that are deleted, when you close or leave the website;
2. permanent cookies that remain after the browser is closed and, which can be used again when returning to the website.

Type of cookie	Description	Term
strictly binding cookies	These cookies on the website are necessary for the user to browse and use the features of the website, e.g. to memorize the information entered in the forms when the user moves from one page to another during a browsing session. Without strictly binding cookies, it would be not possible to provide certain website services, and the website would not operate as smoothly as it should. These cookies do not collect any information for marketing purposes and do not memorise where you have been online	These cookies are used based on the legitimate interest of Lenndy to ensure operation of the website and provide services. The required cookies are saved until you close your browser.
analytical cookies	Analytical cookies collect information on the use of website and assist in improving the operation of the website. For example, analytical cookies can show what pages are visited most frequently, help to record disorders on the website and show whether promotion items are effective. Analytical cookies do not collect personal information from the users, and all information collected by these cookies is aggregated and anonymous.	These cookies are used based on the legitimate interest of Lenndy to collect statistics on website visits and to improve operation of the website. Analytical cookies are kept on your device permanently.
functional cookies	Functional cookies allow the website to memorize your options and provide functions improved and customized to meet your needs better. Functional cookies also remember the changes you made,	These cookies are used based on the legitimate interest of Lenndy to collect statistics on e.g. the individualization of a particular webpage, as well as in other cases, for example, when you watch a video or leave a comment on our webpage. Functional cookies do not track your actions on other websites.	website visits and to improve operation of the website. Analytical cookies are kept on your device permanently.

target or promotional cookies	Target or promotional cookies are used in order to make advertising more relevant to you. They are also used to limit the number of times you see an advert. This type cookie can be used to measure the effectiveness of a campaign. These cookies can be used to memorize what you watched while visiting the website.	These cookies are used based on your consent. When you visit the website and use the services of Lenndy, you agree that the target cookies are used. Target cookies are kept until you delete them in your browser.

Cookies are received by Lenndy and its cooperation partners that ensure the operation of the website, collect and analyse your activities on the website. Cookie information is not transmitted for processing outside the European Union and the EEA.

4. How to restrict and delete cookies?

If you want to restrict, block or delete cookies, this option is provided by changing the settings of your browser. You cannot refuse to use the necessary and functional cookies, since it is not possible to ensure the functioning of the website in their absence.

Please pay attention that if you delete or disable the cookies in the future, you may not reach particular parts or functions of our website. If you change the settings of cookies, this will affect other websites you like to visit.

Our website cookies can be used by third-party analytics and online commercial communications maintenance platforms (Google, Facebook, etc.), so that commercial communications based on your visit history can be presented to you. You may refuse to use such cookies by visiting the settings of the home page of these systems.

Our website may contain links to other third party Internet sites. Each site has its own Privacy Policy. If you visit such third-party internet sites, these sites will be subject to their privacy policies. We neither control, nor take any responsibility for the content, privacy policies and practices of third-party web sites or services.

For more general information about cookies and how to manage them, please read the information at www.aboutcookies.org.
